Rules and instructions for voting by mail

Shareholders may exercise their voting rights by mail. To cast a vote by mail, the shareholder must complete and sign the card issued by the entity or entities in charge of the book-entry registry, in which they must state their vote (for or against), abstention or blank vote, checking the corresponding box with a cross. The completed and signed card may be sent to the Company by ordinary mail to Calle Usausuaga, 7, 48970 Basauri, or by email to ir@virtualwareco.com. Shareholders who cast their vote by mail and do not check any of the voting instruction boxes for the items on the agenda will be deemed to vote in favor of the respective proposals made by the Board of Directors. The vote cast by mail will be rendered null and void by subsequent and express revocation by the shareholder, carried out by the same means used for casting the vote and in the term established for this purpose, or by attendance at the General Meeting by the shareholder who cast the vote by correspondence or by their proxy.

Votes cast by mail must be received by the Company before 23:59 on the day prior to the day scheduled for the Extraordinary General Meeting at first call, i.e., before 23:59 on September 20, 2026. Otherwise, the vote will be deemed not to have been cast. After the aforementioned period, only votes cast in person at the Extraordinary General Meeting by the shareholder or by the person who validly represents them will be admissible. Shareholders who cast their vote by mail will be considered present with regard to the quorum of the General Meeting.

If, as a result of the exercise of the right to include new items on the agenda corresponding to shareholders representing at least five percent (5%) of the capital stock, a supplement to the call is published, shareholders who have delegated their representation or who have cast their vote prior to the publication of said supplement, may:

- (a) award proxy again with the corresponding voting instructions or cast a new vote on all the items on the agenda (including both the initial items and the new items added by the supplement), in which case the proxy granted or the vote cast previously will be deemed to have been revoked and will cease to have any effect; or
- (b) complete the corresponding voting instructions given to the initially appointed proxy (who must be the same person, where no other proxy may be appointed) only with regard to the new items on the agenda incorporated by means of the supplement, all in accordance with the procedures and methods mentioned in the preceding sections, and by the same means used in the proxy granted or the vote originally cast.

If the shareholder has cast a remote vote prior to the publication of the supplement and does not carry out any of the actions specified in sections (a) and (b) above, they will be deemed to abstain with regard to the new items.
